CPSIA and Safety Requirement Guidelines Acknowledgement

The Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008 (CPSIA) changed the safety requirements of many items sold by PCHI. As part of PCHI's commitment to fully comply with CPSIA, it is mandatory that products supplied to PCHI by its vendors covered under the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008 (the Act) be in compliance with all requirements of this legislation. This includes, but is not limited to, the following areas of the Act:

- Children's products containing lead and the lead paint rule. (Title I – Section 101 of the Act)
- Mandatory third party testing for certain children's products and certification requirements. (Title I – Section 102 of the Act)
- Tracking labels for children's products. (Title I – Section 103 of the Act)
- Labeling requirements for children's toys and games, and the vendors obligation to provide the necessary cautionary statement information required by the Act. (Title I – Section 105 of the Act)
- Mandatory toy safety standards. (Title I – Section 106 of the Act)
- Prohibition on sale of certain products containing specified phthalates. (Title I – Section 108 of the Act)

Food and Products that come into contact with Food

Vendors that supply PCHI with food and products that come into contact with food are required to comply with all U.S. FDA (Food and Drug Administration) regulations, including U.S. FDA CFR Title 21 and Proposition 65 regulations. For those facilities that produce food, the following documentation, with satisfactory result(s) is required, but not limited to: i) factory contact & address, ii) GMP food facility certification audit, or equivalent, iii) product test report(s) in accordance applicable test protocols, iv) packaging claims and independent, third party substantiation, v) certificate(s) of insurance, vi) product and process inspection plan in accordance with FDA or equivalent methodology, vii) current social compliance audit per PCHI Code of Conduct requirements, viii) current FDA bioterrorism registration certificate, and ix) applicable country certification(s) required by local or national law.

Certification and Testing Documentation

Vendors must certify (with a GCC as applicable) based on a test of each product they supply PCHI or upon a reasonable testing program that all product that PCHI purchases complies with all rules, bans, standards, or regulations applicable to that product under the Consumer Product Safety Act of 2008, any other Act enforced by the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), and all U.S. FDA Codes of Federal Regulations (CFR).

If revisions to this Act, other CPSC Acts, U.S. FDA CFR's, or future consumer safety legislation or regulation results in additional or alternate safety requirements, PCHI's vendors are required to meet those standards. This includes, but is not limited to, requirements specified in this Vendor Standards Manual and state regulations of Proposition 65, CONEG Toxics in Packaging regulations, or any other applicable laws.

To acknowledge your receipt of this VSM's Product Safety and Quality Assurance requirements, please indicate which PCHI entity you are supplying, sign and date this document to certify that all products you supply to the PCHI entity are in compliance, and will continue to be in compliance in the future, with the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008, other Consumer Product Safety Commission Acts, and all applicable U.S. FDA or state regulations. Please return a copy of the signed and dated document to the fax number of the applicable PCHI entity representative. (All PCHI entity contacts are listed in Section 11 of this Vendor Standards Manual).
